

A correspondent of the Biblical Recorder, who signs himself "H," don't like our pictures of the boys now in jail to answer the charge of murdering Willie Carter, taken while at the investigation before Squire Cassidy. In our description of the boy David, we said, "He looks incapable of committing the horrible crime he himself admits with the most perfect nonchalance. He has a pleasant voice, and acts and speaks with the artlessness of innocent childhood." To this "H" takes exception, and writes the following, italics and all: "One would infer from this that David must be laboring under a mistake in supposing that he took any part in this brutal butchery—nay that David is especially given to making serious mistakes in his statements; for of course his innocent artlessness is incapable of producing the unconscionable and multitudinous lies which make up so large a part of his testimony as printed in the city papers."

Now, we will ask Mr. "H" if he read the evidence, and if so, if he can understand how a boy of 14 years of age can give four different versions of the same tragedy, every one plausible and every one almost entirely different? We cannot. His promptness in answering questions, and his artless appearance on the stand, were the most remarkable exhibitions we ever witnessed in the annals of crime, and we have reported hundreds of important trials in this and other States.

As to the boy Elijah, he proved a clear alibi, according to our idea, and had we been the committing magistrate he would have been discharged. And, in fact, save the confessions of the boys David and Jimmie, which varied materially every time they were made, there is no evidence that will connect either of the defendants—Mrs. Carter, the boy Elijah, or Billy, with the murder, and their evidence will not convict them before a jury.

The correspondent wonders "what sort of a negro will do for a murderer," and to that we beg to say, that because God has made a man with a black skin, it is no sign he is a murderer, though arrested on suspicion, and we do not deem it the duty of journalists to assist juries in making up a verdict of guilty. The law presumes them innocent until proved guilty, though the democratic rule seems to be that if he is a negro he is guilty.

The Post will do all in its power for the detection and punishment of crime, and several men are now in the Penitentiary, who, but for the careful investigations of the editor of the Post, would be at large. He has seen men unjustly accused, however, and he has enough charity in his composition not to hastily condemn the unfortunate, though ignorant and black. The law does not want a victim on whom to wreak vengeance, but it wants to punish the guilty parties, for the prevention of crimes.

We are so accustomed to be misrepresented, in democratic papers, and among members of that party on the streets, we do not care to waste time in constantly defining our position, but we defy "H" or "any other man," to show where we have defended crime because its perpetrator was black or ignorant. The cry of the southern democracy now is, that they are the especial lovers of the negro race and that Northern men are here only to deceive them.

Here is a writer for a religious paper who intimates that we are carefully concealing the faults and crimes of this unfortunate race, because they are black. Neither position is correct. We will acknowledge merit, whether enclosed in black or white skins, and will equally as promptly denounce crime, but not at the expense of justice.

It is not our custom to notice anonymous communications or publications, but as we have been requested to say a few words on this subject, we have departed from our rule on this occasion.

Twenty-six small Sardinian horses, from Cagliari, have arrived at Naples, which they say King Emmanuel is going to give Queen Victoria.

A correspondent of the New York Mail says that "kissing a lady with an Elizabethan ruff on is about as much fun as embracing a circular saw in full motion."

Recorder Hackett has sentenced a "roper-in" of a New York gambling house to two years in the State's prison and a fine of $2,000—the heaviest penalty the law provides.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

—The National Commercial Convention, which was to meet in Pittsburgh on the 2d of September, has been postponed to the 25th of November.

—A wooden tripod, fifty-seven feet high, has been erected in the place of the spindle on the easterly point of Ash Island, east side of Muscle-ridge channel, Penobscot bay, Me.

—Lowenstein, the alleged murderer of Weston, is expected to be extradited by the Canadian authorities the latter part of this week. Additional evidence has been procured against him in Brooklyn.

—The Supreme Court of South Carolina on Wednesday decided the case of Morton, Bliss & Co., bondholders, vs. the State, adversely to the tax payers. The decision covers one hundred pages of legal cap.

—During the past week, owing to the want of facilities on the part of contractors for furnishing the smaller post offices, there has been a falling off in the shipment of postal cards of nearly a million. The deficiency will be supplied as soon as possible.

—Werschbrodt, who shot his wife and then himself late Wednesday night, has been married nineteen years. Both are still alive. He says she has left him seven times, each time going to a brothel, and it was while endeavoring to persuade her to return to him again that he shot her that night.

From the Government observatory at Sydney, New South Wales, information has arrived, announcing that at Terra-ra, a point four miles from the eastern coast of that country, rain fell on the 9th of March to a depth of over an inch and a half in twenty-seven minutes.

The President having accepted the recent surveys of the Southern Pacific railroad, the issuing of land grants along the line of the said route is now in order. The company have forwarded maps of the road to the Interior Department as certificates of right of way and the basis for issuing patents.

—The directors of the Panama railroad company held a meeting for the purpose of consummating arrangements in relation to the loan to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, for which it is proposed to take a mortgage on the most seaworthy vessels of the company. The attendance was full. It was resolved by a majority vote to pay the Pacific Mail Steamship Company $500,000 on six vessels, provided that company will make them a clean bill of sale of each vessel.

For the Post.

Mr. Editor:—About three weeks ago I received from Dr. Gaillard of the Louisville Medical College, a certificate, and leaving it to my discretion for recommendation, for a beneficiary scholarship in that institution. A letter accompanied the certificate which was published in the daily papers of the city; and I consulted with Dr. King, by whose advice I determined to be guided in my selection of the candidate. In yesterday's Post appears an advertisement from Dr. Gaillard repudiating all Senators and their appointees who are not white, respectable and worthy.

Of course the Louisville Medical College can qualify their offers as they choose. If after having been in correspondence with me upon the subject, that institution desires to withdraw from an explicit and positive contract I do not care to insist upon its fulfillment. Not knowing, and not greatly caring to know the articles of incorporation of the Louisville Medical College, and ignorant, also, of the terms by which the Trustees created in perpetuity one beneficiary scholarship, annually, for each Senatorial District of the State of North Carolina, I am content to leave to Dr. Gaillard, Dean of the Faculty, or to whomsoever else it is due, the credit of violating the charter of the College, or seceding from an engagement. I hope the public will reflect that I sought no agency in the matter; whatever I did was upon the earnest solicitation of the Doctor himself, and for some deserving young man who might, I thought, be benefited by the offer.

This is clasp hands indeed! This is richness! Extreme Southern men are perhaps somewhat acquainted with this Dr. Gaillard, as he is known to be a frequent contributor to their favorite publication, the Southern Magazine. Is it possible that the extreme Southern men are like this same Dr. Gaillard? Have they all the same fine sense of honor which distinguishes this superb Southern gentleman? I venture the hope that Southern honor, which ought not to differ with any honor, will administer a proper rebuke to Dr. Gaillard for the violation of his word, as well as the wanton insult to men of my race in the advertisement which appeared yesterday.

Very respectfully, yours,
G. L. MARSON,
Senator 12th District N. C.
Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 28, 1873.

The Greensboro' North State complaints because papers copy its articles without credit. Why that's nothing, brother State. It is the experience of all good papers. We have suffered the same way often.

When our streets are Nicholsonized and the much talked of Water Works citizens take pride in showing to visitors the many natural beauties and handsome residences that our city possesses.

NOTICE.—Several hogs and pigs have owners to call and prove property, pay damages and take them away.

What shall we do with the dogs is a question agitating the public mind.— Though there are many badges on, we fear the carts have not carried off their proportion of canines this year. Something must be done to relieve the pressure, but we have nothing to suggest.

FRIENDLY WARNING.—We call attention to the advertisement of the Mayor in regard to vagrancy. All persons who have no visible means of support had better look out. We know two or three spindleshank young men, who wear tight, and to them we would suggest that they have their pants made larger, and filled up with meal bran or something of the sort.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

was continued until to-morrow morning.

John Cowan, Sam Brown, Jerry Forbes and Henry Bradley, charged postponed until to-morrow morning.

Rev. G. W. PUGH died in this city place to-morrow (Saturday) morning at dist Church, thence to Oakdale Cemetery, and will be attended by the Masonic Fraternity, as per advertisement of the Secretary of St. John's Lodge No.

local minister of the Methodist Church, and is represented to have been a good man and an exemplary Christian.

WILMINGTON CITY DIRECTORY.—
Messrs. S. G. Hall and E. S. Warrock are making arrangements for publishing a full and complete Directory of the City. Instead of the "History of Wilmington from its commencement," it is the intention of the publishers to present a comprehensive and concise article on the commerce and business interests of the City; also, a description of the Churches, Schools, Public Buildings
Hotels, Railroads and Steamboat lines, &c. &c.

This Directory will be issued by the Fair in November, will be printed in this city, and no collections asked until the work is completed and delivered.

There has not been a time when a correct Directory of the City was more needed than at present, and we have no doubt but that our business men will promptly embrace the opportunity of liberally patronizing a work which will tend so much to their interest.

—Mild.
—Cool nights now.
—Gold is in New York 115½.
—Dr. King will be absent about two weeks.
—Drums are now in market. Fall is most here.
—We are having many "light areas of rain." We suggest that "Old Prob" comes back from Europe—the weather is so uncertain.
—To divide New Hanover will materially lessen the taxes of the city of Wilmington, and give us some more Republicans in the Legislature.
—Almost every paper in the State hails the advent of the Great Eastern Circus. If it is the first one of the season, it will carry a vast amount of money out of the State.

PROJECTED IMPROVEMENTS.—Messrs.
Aaron & Rheinstein intend adding two stories to their dry goods establishment which will make it five stories high.— The entire front is to be of iron and it is said will be the handsomest building in the South.
Mr. Donald McRae, the owner of the property next to Messrs. Aaron & Rheinstein, will commence in October to pull "that old eye sore" down and erect in its stead two handsome stores.
We are glad to see these improvements, which are evidences of the growth of our city. Improvements seem to be the slogan of our citizens.

A FEROUS ATTEMPT.—There is a large white and black hog which roams our streets, and which seems to have a carte blanche to all the slop tubs in the vicinity of the hotels and which very often amuses persons, by her antics, was discovered this morning rolling a crate of grapes from Messrs.
Chas. D. Myers & Co.'s store door.—
She had succeeded in rolling it over and over until it got in the gutter in front of the Purcell House, and worked some time trying to get it out of the gutter on the side walk, but before she had succeeded in her undertaking some of the attaches of Myers & Co.'s establishment took it away, thereby depriving the hog of a grape breakfast.

A YOUNG THIEF.—Yesterday morning some one sneaked into the front part of Messrs. Hart & Bailey's office, while the clerks were in the rear of the store, and stole a piece of brass that was lying on the floor and again this morning Mr. Bailey discovered a little colored boy run out of the store.
He soon discovered that other pieces of brass had been taken and immediately put the police on the track of the thief, who answers to the name of William Green. At the time of Green's arrest the brass was found in his pockets and up his shirt sleeves. The thief is only about thirteen years old, but is well known to the police as a bad boy. He will have a hearing before the Mayor to-morrow.

on the 1st of September, by which the

"The one thing," says Jean Paul,
"which a maiden most easily forgets is how she looks—hence mirrors were invented."

An Auburn (N. Y.) young woman who lost one of her toes in a defective sidewalk, went to law and got $1,500 for the tiny member.

Mr. Delafeld, the brewer, who entered on the Royal Italian opera in London for two seasons, lost about $40,000 by the enterprise.

The superintendent of a Georgia railroad was asked for half-fare tickets to those wishing to emigrate to Texas. He replied: "Not one cent for emigration —thousands for immigration."

There are only two papers in Pennsylvania that defend the salary grab-—the Harrisburg Patriot and the Wells-borough Democrat, both Democratic.
The Patriot is the State organ of the

It is now expected that the great International Railway bridge, to span the Niagara river between Buffalo and Fort Erie, will be completed, and a formal opening take place, some time in October next.

A number of English capitalists have bought considerable real estate on Staten Island lately, preparatory to the establishment of a large manufactory of oil cloth of a new sort. Five hundred workmen are to be employed.

England is outstripped in the iron trade not merely by the United States, but by France. The contract for 12,000 tons of steel rails recently advertised for by the Belgian Government has been taken by an iron manufacturing firm at Le Creuzot, France.

The marriage of a deceased wife's sister is illegal in Great Britain, but the courts have recently decided that they would not set aside a settlement of real and personal estate made before marriage by the husband for the benefit of a woman so married.

ment door was left open. Irving and his companion remained in the dark for some time, when a man came down, who said, I have finished the old man. They then went up stairs. Irving says he has in his house in New York some stocks, and a memorandum book partly written in Hebrew, which he took from the old man. They only got between six and seven thousand dollars. Irving has

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the Post is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES OF

the Post, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

AGRICULTURAL,

MECHANICAL, or

COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

When the names of subscribers are required to be written upon each paper of the Club at one Post office address, ten cents for each copy additional to the above rates.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

In accordance with our last prospectus, the specially reduced rates for 1873, viz: Weekly, per year.....$1 00 Semi-Weekly, per year.....2 50 will be maintained for all new subscribers, and all old subscribers renewing prior to the 15th day of January, 1873, when the above Club rates will take effect. THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES Will contain Selected Editorials from the Daily Times; General News, Domestic and Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures; Fall and Winter Correspondence; Book Reviews; The Choice of Literary Selections; while its most prominent feature will be a COMPLETE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, with original articles from practical farmers; full reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club; complete weekly market reports; financial, domestic produce, live stock, dry goods and general.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,

THE TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,

THE TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany King, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The Times stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the Times. But it will not confine its assistance to ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity. It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly Times: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money order, or by personal payment, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address THE NEW YORK TIMES, New York City.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:
C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Cresswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellence of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you), to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly, S. MCGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC.—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work where paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate. WM. E. SINN, BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873.

Front Street Theatre. CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.
Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception. Yours, truly, JACOB STOUTER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.
Mr. C. P. Knight—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odors. Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.
C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you has been used on the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work. Very Respectfully, C. P. KNIGHT, Sole Agent, No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with it, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
